

SEMBLANT

Meaning: 'Semblant' refers to an outward appearance or likeness that suggests a particular quality or state, often not fully reflective of the underlying reality.

1. The artist created a semblant of reality that captivated all who viewed his work.
2. Despite his calm demeanor, there was a semblant of unease in the room.
3. Her smile was a semblant of happiness, masking the sadness beneath.
4. The report provided a semblant of accuracy, but many details were misleading.
5. In the twilight, the shadows cast a semblant of mystery over the landscape.
6. The garden was a semblant of paradise, filled with vibrant flowers and chirping birds.
7. His calm demeanor was merely a semblant of confidence, masking his inner turmoil.
8. The painting captured a semblant of reality that left viewers questioning its authenticity.
9. In her eyes, there was a semblant of sadness that hinted at untold stories.
10. The company's success was a semblant of hard work, but many knew it was built on luck as well.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/semblant>