

SEMBLING

Meaning: 'Sembling' refers to the act of having a similar appearance or quality to something else.

1. The painting depicted a landscape resembling the serene beauty of the countryside.
2. Her laughter was reminiscent of a melodious song, resembling the joy of childhood memories.
3. The new student has a style resembling that of a famous fashion icon, drawing attention wherever she goes.
4. The architecture of the building has a historical charm, resembling the designs from the Victorian era.
5. His argument was structured in a way resembling a well-crafted essay, making it easy to follow and understand.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sembling>