

SEMIBREVE

Meaning: A semibreve is a musical note that has a duration of four beats in common time and is represented by a hollow oval shape without a stem.

1. The term 'semibreve' refers to a musical note with a duration of four beats in common time.
2. In the context of music theory, a semibreve is represented by a hollow oval note without a stem.
3. Composers often use the semibreve to create longer melodic lines that can sustain emotional tension.
4. During the music lesson, the instructor explained how to properly count the duration of a semibreve.
5. Understanding the concept of a semibreve is essential for beginners learning to read sheet music.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/semibreve>