

SEMIDETACHED

Meaning: Semidetached refers to a type of house that is joined to another house on one side, sharing a common wall while having its own separate entrance.

1. The newly built semidetached houses feature modern designs and energy-efficient systems.
2. Living in a semidetached property allows for a sense of community while still maintaining some privacy.
3. The semidetached home had a charming garden that connected both units in a unique way.
4. She preferred the semidetached style for its blend of affordability and space compared to detached homes.
5. After years of searching, they finally found a semidetached house that met all their requirements.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/semidetached>