SEMINIFICATION

Meaning: Seminification refers to the process of transforming educational practices and community engagement through the organization and implementation of seminars or similar instructional formats.

1. The seminar focused on the process of seminification in modern education systems.
2. Researchers debated the implications of seminification on community engagement and learning outcomes.
3. Understanding seminification can help educators enhance their teaching methods and student involvement.
4. The concept of seminification offers a framework for analyzing the effectiveness of workshops and training sessions.
5. Critics argue that seminification may lead to a superficial understanding of complex subjects.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/seminification