

SEMIPELLUCID

Meaning: Semipellucid refers to a material that is partially transparent, allowing some light to pass through while obscuring clear visibility.

1. The artist chose a semipellucid glass to enhance the ethereal quality of her sculpture.
2. In the morning light, the semipellucid fabric of the curtains created a soft, diffused glow in the room.
3. The semipellucid nature of the mineral allowed for a fascinating interplay of light and shadow.
4. She admired the semipellucid water of the lake, which revealed the colorful pebbles below without fully exposing them.
5. The designer incorporated semipellucid elements into the modern architecture to create a sense of openness while maintaining privacy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/semipellucid>