

SEMITRANSLUCENT

Meaning: SEMITRANSLUCENT: allowing some light to pass through while obscuring visibility, often used to create a soft or diffused illumination.

1. The semitranslucent material allowed soft light to filter into the room, creating a warm ambiance.
2. She chose a semitranslucent curtain for the living room to maintain privacy while still letting in natural light.
3. The artist used semitranslucent layers in his paintings to create depth and a sense of luminosity.
4. In the laboratory, the semitranslucent screens were essential for observing the reactions without direct interference.
5. The designer favored semitranslucent plastics for the modern furniture line, offering a sleek and contemporary look.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/semitranslucent>