

SEMIVITRIFIED

Meaning: Semivitrified refers to a state of rock or clay that has partially melted and solidified, indicating a condition of intermediate vitrification often resulting from intense heat and pressure.

1. The geologist examined the semivitrified layers of rock to understand the volcanic activity in the region.
2. In some areas, the clay deposits were found to be semivitrified, indicating prolonged heating and pressure.
3. The artist used semivitrified clay to create a unique texture in her pottery designs.
4. During the excavation, they discovered semivitrified remains of ancient organisms that revealed insights into past ecosystems.
5. The construction material, composed of semivitrified minerals, provided excellent durability against weathering.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/semivitrified>