

SENNIT

Meaning: Sennit is a type of braided cord or rope made from natural fibers, often used in maritime applications for its strength and decorative qualities.

1. The sailor expertly wove the sennit into a sturdy lanyard.
2. She admired the intricate patterns created by the braided sennit on the traditional boat.
3. Using sennit for the rigging ensured both strength and flexibility in rough seas.
4. The craftsman demonstrated how to create various knots using sennit for decorative purposes.
5. He explained that sennit was essential for securing the sails during the stormy weather.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sennit>