SENSATIONALISM

Meaning: Sensationalism is the practice of exaggerating or distorting information to provoke public interest or excitement, often at the expense of accuracy.

1. Sensationalism often distorts the truth in pursuit of higher ratings and clicks.
2. The tabloid's sensationalism overshadowed the important issues at hand.
3. Critics argue that sensationalism in the media leads to a misinformed public.
4. She was frustrated by the sensationalism that surrounded the celebrity scandal.
5. Many believe that sensationalism diminishes the quality of journalism as a whole.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sensationalism