

SENSATIONALIST

Meaning: Sensationalist: characterized by the use of shocking or exaggerated elements to provoke strong emotional reactions, often at the expense of accuracy or truth.

1. Many critics argue that the sensationalist media often prioritizes shock value over factual reporting.
2. His sensationalist approach to storytelling captivated audiences but frequently distorted the truth.
3. The documentary was criticized for its sensationalist tactics that overshadowed the real issues at hand.
4. She dismissed the sensationalist claims made by the tabloids as nothing more than exaggerated gossip.
5. To gain viewers, the sensationalist journalist resorted to fearmongering and dramatic headlines.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sensationalist>