

SENT

Meaning: 'SENT' is the past tense of 'send,' meaning to have caused something to go or be taken to a particular destination.

1. She sent a heartfelt letter to her grandmother.
2. The package was sent yesterday, so it should arrive soon.
3. After the meeting, he sent a follow-up email to all participants.
4. They sent out invitations for the wedding last week.
5. She sent a quick text to let him know she was running late.
6. She sent the invitation to all her friends well in advance.
7. After a long day at work, he sent a quick text to check on his family.
8. The package was sent yesterday and should arrive by tomorrow.
9. He sent her a heartfelt message to express his appreciation.
10. The photographer sent the edited photos to the couple after the wedding.
11. She sent a heartfelt letter to her grandmother for her birthday.
12. The company sent an urgent email to all employees regarding the new policy.
13. After hours of preparation, he finally sent his application to the university.
14. They sent a team to investigate the unusual activity reported in the area.
15. I sent my friend a text message to let her know I would be late.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sent>