

SENTIMENTALISM

Meaning: Sentimentalism is an excessive or exaggerated expression of emotion, often characterized by nostalgia, that can distort judgment or manipulate feelings.

1. Sentimentalism often leads to an overly nostalgic view of the past that can cloud judgment.
2. The novel's excessive sentimentalism made some readers feel manipulated rather than moved.
3. In art, sentimentalism can evoke strong feelings but may sacrifice depth for emotional appeal.
4. Critics of sentimentalism argue that it simplifies complex human emotions into superficial tropes.
5. Her sentimentalism was evident in the way she cherished old photographs and letters from friends.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sentimentalism>