

SENTRY

Meaning: SENTRY: A guard or soldier stationed to keep watch and ensure security at a specific location.

1. The sentry stood motionless at the entrance, watching for any signs of trouble.
2. As night fell, the sentry's vigilance became even more crucial to the safety of the camp.
3. He was assigned to the role of sentry, tasked with protecting the perimeter from intruders.
4. The sentry's uniform was crisp and polished, a reflection of the discipline expected in the ranks.
5. Every hour, the sentry would change shifts, ensuring that no one ever let their guard down.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sentry>