

SEPARATING

Meaning: Separating refers to the act of dividing or distinguishing different elements or categories from one another.

1. Separating the recyclables from the trash is essential for effective waste management.
2. The artist focused on separating light and shadow to create depth in her painting.
3. Separating personal feelings from professional responsibilities can be challenging.
4. During the experiment, they were separating the components of the mixture for analysis.
5. She enjoyed the process of separating her wardrobe into seasonal clothing collections.
6. Separating the recyclables from the trash is an important aspect of environmental conservation.
7. The teacher focused on separating the students into smaller groups for more effective learning.
8. After separating the items into categories, the organization was able to streamline the donation process.
9. Separating personal feelings from professional responsibilities can be challenging in the workplace.
10. She spent the afternoon carefully separating the strands of the intricate necklace.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/separating>