SEPARATISM

Meaning: Separatism is the advocacy for the separation of a particular group or region from a larger political entity, often leading to political and social tensions.

1. Separatism can lead to significant political and social tensions within a nation.
2. The rise of regional separatism has prompted debates about national identity and unity.
3. Many historians study the impact of separatism on the borders and governance of countries.
4. Activists argued that cultural differences justified their movement for separatism.
5. The government's response to separatism often shapes the future of national cohesion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/separatism