

SEPAWN

Meaning: 'Sepawn' (verb): to transform or revitalize a creative work or project by altering its appearance or approach.

1. The artist decided to sepawn her latest sculpture in a vibrant shade of blue.
2. After much consideration, he chose to sepawn the project, believing it needed a fresh perspective.
3. The team's decision to sepawn their original plan led to a more streamlined approach.
4. During the meeting, she proposed to sepawn the marketing strategy to better align with current trends.
5. To achieve a more dynamic outcome, the director encouraged the writers to sepawn their scripts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sepawn>