SEPTIFEROUS

Meaning: Septiferous: pertaining to or producing septa, particularly in the context of organisms or structures that facilitate the transmission of disease or contain distinct compartments.

1. The septiferous nature of the plant made it a subject of interest for researchers studying disease transmission.
2. In the lab, the team carefully examined the septiferous regions of the bacteria under a microscope.
3. Her study on septiferous organisms revealed crucial insights into how certain infections spread.
4. The septiferous quality of the soil was a significant factor in the agricultural yield of the area.
5. During the seminar, the professor explained the implications of septiferous species in the ecosystem.
6. The septiferous nature of the bacteria highlighted the importance of cleanliness in the laboratory.
7. In his research, he discovered a septiferous plant that could potentially revolutionize waste management.
8. The doctor's diagnosis was complicated by the presence of septiferous lesions on the patient's skin.
9. During the outbreak, officials focused on controlling the spread of septiferous organisms in the water supply.
10. Her study on septiferous fungi provided valuable insights into their role in the ecosystem.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/septiferous