

SEPTIFORM

Meaning: Septiform: having or characterized by seven distinct forms or facets.

1. The artist's latest sculpture was a septiform piece that captured the essence of nature in seven distinct facets.
2. In botanical studies, the septiform structure of certain flowers can influence their pollination strategies.
3. The ancient ruins revealed a septiform layout, suggesting a sophisticated understanding of geometry among the builders.
4. During the lecture, the professor explained how septiform designs often symbolize harmony and balance in various cultures.
5. Her research focused on septiform patterns in architecture, showcasing the interplay between form and function.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/septiform>