

SEQUESTRUM

Meaning: Sequestrum refers to a legal order or process that temporarily seizes or protects property or assets during litigation or until a financial dispute is resolved.

1. The legal team filed for a sequestrum to protect the assets during the ongoing litigation.
2. In cases of mortgage default, a sequestrum may be imposed on the property until the situation is resolved.
3. The judge ordered a sequestrum to ensure that the disputed funds were secured while the trial was pending.
4. After the investigation, the authorities determined that a sequestrum was necessary to safeguard the evidence.
5. The concept of sequestrum is often misunderstood by those unfamiliar with legal terminology.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sequestrum>