

SERANG

Meaning: 'Serang' means to attack or assault with force, either in a military context or in the sense of waves crashing against a surface.

1. The soldiers prepared to serang the enemy's stronghold at dawn.
2. As the storm approached, the waves began to serang the shore with ferocity.
3. He decided to serang the issue head-on rather than waiting for it to resolve itself.
4. The local fishermen warned that the currents could serang anyone who ventured too far out.
5. In the heated debate, she chose to serang her opponent's arguments with confidence.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/serang>