

SERMOCINATION

Meaning: Sermocination refers to the process of interpreting and analyzing a text to uncover its deeper meanings and themes.

1. Sermocination can often lead to a deeper understanding of the text's underlying themes.
2. The professor emphasized the importance of sermocination in interpreting complex literature.
3. During the lecture, the students engaged in a stimulating discussion about sermocination and its effects on perception.
4. Sermocination requires not just reading but also reflecting on the meaning behind the words.
5. Through sermocination, the speaker captivated the audience with a profound message.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sermocination>