

SERMOCINATOR

Meaning: Sermocinators are skilled orators or speakers who deliver persuasive and eloquent speeches, often in a debate or public speaking context.

1. The sermocinators in the debate club were known for their eloquent speeches.
2. After much practice, she became the top sermocinator in her class, captivating her audience.
3. The competition was fierce, but the sermocinator delivered a performance that left everyone in awe.
4. His ability to articulate complex ideas made him a standout sermocinator among his peers.
5. In a world filled with distractions, being a skilled sermocinator can truly make a difference.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sermocinator>