

SERMONEER

Meaning: SERMONEER (verb): To deliver a sermon or discourse in an engaging and persuasive manner.

1. The preacher's ability to sermoneer captivated the entire congregation.
2. She had a knack for sermoneering that made even the most complex topics relatable.
3. During the community event, he was invited to sermoneer on the importance of kindness.
4. Her talent to sermoneer effectively drew in listeners from all walks of life.
5. As a skilled sermoneer, he transformed mundane messages into powerful life lessons.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sermoneer>