

SERMONING

Meaning: Sermoning refers to the act of delivering a sermon or speaking in a moralizing or didactic manner, often to convey a lesson or principle.

1. The pastor's sermonizing style often left the congregation in deep reflection.
2. She found herself sermonizing about kindness in the middle of a heated discussion.
3. His friends jokingly criticized him for sermonizing whenever they talked about ethics.
4. During the meeting, he began sermonizing about the importance of teamwork and collaboration.
5. The teacher's sermonizing approach inspired her students to think critically about their choices.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sermoning>