

SERMONIZER

Meaning: Sermonizer: a person who delivers sermons or religious speeches, often engaging and inspiring an audience with their message.

1. The sermonizer captivated the congregation with a powerful message about compassion and understanding.
2. As a skilled sermonizer, she knew how to connect with her audience on a personal level.
3. His reputation as a dynamic sermonizer attracted people from neighboring towns to hear him speak.
4. The sermonizer's passionate delivery made even the most complex theological concepts accessible to everyone.
5. Many considered him a master sermonizer, able to inspire change in the hearts of his listeners.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sermonizer>