

SERUM

Meaning: Serum is a clear, yellowish fluid that separates from blood when it clots, often used in medical treatments or research, particularly for its therapeutic properties.

1. The scientist carefully injected the serum into the test subject to monitor its effects.
2. After several weeks of testing, the researchers discovered that the serum improved recovery times significantly.
3. She applied the serum to her face, hoping it would give her skin a more youthful appearance.
4. The doctor explained that the serum contained antibodies designed to fight the infection.
5. During the pandemic, the development of a new serum was crucial for treating those infected with the virus.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/serum>