

SERVITOR

Meaning: Servitor: a person who serves or assists another, often in a subordinate role, especially in a domestic or formal setting.

1. The ancient castle was said to be haunted by a loyal servitor who had served its lord for centuries.
2. In the grand estate, the servitor was tasked with ensuring that every detail was perfect for the royal visit.
3. With a deep bow, the servitor presented the scroll to the queen, awaiting her command.
4. Despite the oppressive heat, the servitor remained steadfast in his duties, never showing signs of fatigue.
5. The novel depicted a world where servitors were not just servants, but integral members of society with their own rights.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/servitor>