

SETDOWN

Meaning: Setdown refers to a formal reprimand or admonition, as well as the act of placing something down in a stable position.

1. The judge issued a firm setdown during the trial, emphasizing the importance of adhering to courtroom decorum.
2. After a long day of work, she appreciated the setdown of her laptop on the table, feeling the weight lift from her shoulders.
3. The director called for a setdown of the script, allowing the cast to focus on character development instead of memorization.
4. During the meeting, he requested a setdown of the agenda items to ensure they covered all pressing issues.
5. The chef's setdown of the ingredients on the counter signaled that the cooking process was about to begin.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/setdown>