

SETIFEROUS

Meaning: Setiferous: having or bearing bristles or hair-like structures, often serving a protective or functional purpose in organisms.

1. The setiferous bristles on the insect's body serve as a defense mechanism against predators.
2. In botany, setiferous structures can be crucial for the dispersal of seeds and pollen.
3. The scientist noted that the setiferous characteristics of the plant were key to its adaptation in arid environments.
4. During the examination, the setiferous hairs of the specimen were highlighted as an important identification feature.
5. The texture of the fabric was surprisingly setiferous, making it both unique and intriguing to touch.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/setiferous>