

SETIFORM

Meaning: Setiform refers to a shape or structure that resembles or is shaped like a seta, or bristle, characterized by being slender and elongated.

1. The setiform structure of the plant's leaves gives it a unique appearance.
2. Entomologists often describe the setiform appendages of certain insects to differentiate species.
3. During the study, researchers noted the setiform characteristics of the newly discovered marine organism.
4. The artist's depiction of the setiform branches added an intricate detail to the landscape painting.
5. In botanical terms, setiform refers to features that resemble or are shaped like bristles.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/setiform>