

SHAKE

Meaning: SHAKE (verb): To move or cause to move with quick, short movements, often resulting in vibrations or tremors.

1. The earthquake caused the ground to shake violently, sending people fleeing for safety.
2. As she tried to contain her laughter, he could see her shoulders shake in delight.
3. He decided to shake the bottle before pouring the dressing over the salad.
4. After finishing the exercise, she took a moment to shake off the fatigue and stretch.
5. The dog wagged its tail and jumped up to shake hands with its new owner.
6. She decided to shake the bottle vigorously before pouring the drink.
7. The unexpected news made him shake with excitement and disbelief.
8. As the earthquake struck, the buildings began to shake violently.
9. They performed a traditional dance that included a lively shake of the hips.
10. After the meeting, it was customary to shake hands as a sign of goodwill.
11. She felt a sudden urge to shake off the lingering doubts in her mind.
12. The earthquake caused the entire building to shake violently for several seconds.
13. After the meeting, they shared a firm handshake that signified their agreement.
14. He decided to shake things up by introducing a new approach to the project.
15. As the music played, the crowd began to shake and dance with infectious energy.
16. I like to shake my cocktails to ensure they are perfectly mixed.
17. The earthquake caused the ground to shake violently under our feet.
18. She offered to shake my hand as a sign of goodwill after our disagreement.
19. After the long meeting, we all needed a break to shake off the stress.
20. He decided to shake things up by trying a new approach to the project.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/shake>