

SHAM

Meaning: A sham is a deceptive or fraudulent act or appearance intended to mislead or create a false impression.

1. The ceremony was nothing more than a sham, designed to give the illusion of transparency.
2. Despite his charming demeanor, many suspected that his intentions were simply a sham to gain trust.
3. The organization exposed the sham behind the charity, revealing that most of the funds never reached those in need.
4. Her enthusiasm for the project felt like a sham, masking her true disinterest in the work.
5. After years of investigation, they uncovered the sham operation that had been scamming consumers for profit.
6. The charity event turned out to be a sham, raising only a fraction of the funds it claimed.
7. He realized that the smooth-talking salesman was peddling a sham product that didn't work as advertised.
8. Her apology felt like a sham, lacking any genuine remorse or understanding of her actions.
9. The investigation revealed that the entire operation was a sham designed to defraud unsuspecting investors.
10. Despite the glossy presentation, the so-called expert's credentials were a sham and lacked any real substance.
11. The politician's promises turned out to be a complete sham, leaving voters feeling deceived.
12. Despite its glamorous appearance, the event was a sham designed to attract attention without any real substance.
13. She quickly realized that the so-called charity was just a sham to line the organizers' pockets.
14. His confidence was nothing more than a sham, hiding his deep-seated insecurities.
15. The study was dismissed as a sham due to its lack of rigorous methodology and peer review.
16. Despite its glamorous facade, the charity was revealed to be a sham, skimming funds for personal gain.

17. She felt that the lavish party was nothing but a sham, designed to impress rather than celebrate.
18. His enthusiasm for the project was a sham, as he had no real interest in its success.
19. The entire negotiation process felt like a sham, with both sides unwilling to compromise.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sham>