

SHAMA

Meaning: Shama (noun): a small, melodious songbird of the family Muscicapidae, known for its beautiful singing, often found in forested areas.

1. The melodious song of the shama echoed through the lush forest.
2. Inspired by the beauty of nature, she painted a portrait of a shama perched on a branch.
3. In traditional folklore, the shama is often seen as a symbol of love and devotion.
4. As the sun set, the shama began its evening serenade, enchanting all who listened.
5. Birdwatchers flock to the region, hoping to catch a glimpse of the elusive shama.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/shama>