

SHAMER

Meaning: Shamer (noun): a person who criticizes or mocks others in a way that causes shame or diminishes their self-worth.

1. The shamer's harsh words left a lasting impact on her self-esteem.
2. In a world filled with judgment, it's important to be more compassionate than a shamer.
3. He felt like a shamer himself, criticizing others to mask his own insecurities.
4. The documentary explored the effects of being labeled as a shamer in social circles.
5. She vowed to be an encourager instead of a shamer, promoting kindness and support.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/shamer>