

SHANKED

Meaning: Shank (verb): to hit a golf ball with the club in such a way that it strikes the clubface off-center, causing the ball to veer off course.

1. He shanked his shot, sending the ball veering far off course.
2. The golfer was frustrated after he shanked his putt on the final hole.
3. During the game, the quarterback shanked the snap, leading to a turnover.
4. She shanked the steak, making it tough and difficult to chew.
5. In a moment of panic, he shanked his response during the job interview.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/shanked>