

SHARKING

Meaning: Sharking refers to the act of deceitfully taking advantage of someone or seeking opportunities to exploit a situation, often in a playful or mischievous manner.

1. Sharking can often refer to the act of stealing or taking advantage of someone, especially in a social setting.
2. The kids were sharking around the playground, looking for any chance to play pranks on their friends.
3. During the poker game, I noticed a few players sharking each other with sly glances and hidden signals.
4. He had a reputation for sharking unsuspecting tourists, charging them far more than the fair price.
5. In the world of online gaming, sharking players often target newbies to exploit their inexperience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sharking>