

SHARP-SET

Meaning: Sharp-set refers to having prominent, defined facial features, particularly a strong jawline, that convey intensity or distinctiveness.

1. The artist's sharp-set features gave her an air of intensity that captivated the audience.
2. His sharp-set jawline was accentuated by the dramatic lighting of the photograph.
3. The sharp-set expression on her face revealed her determination to succeed.
4. As he spoke, his sharp-set eyebrows conveyed both authority and confidence.
5. The sharp-set angles of the building's design made it stand out against the skyline.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sharp-set>