

SHARPLING

Meaning: Sharpling (adjective): characterized by a keen, precise clarity or focus in expression or execution.

1. The artist's brush moved with a sharpling precision, capturing every detail of the landscape.
2. In the quiet of the library, her thoughts sharpened, each idea becoming a sharpling insight.
3. He approached the debate with a sharpling wit that left his opponents momentarily speechless.
4. The director's vision was reflected in the sharpling dialogue that kept the audience on the edge of their seats.
5. As the sun began to set, the colors in the sky took on a sharpling quality, vibrant and alive.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sharpling>