

SHATTER

Meaning: To shatter means to break suddenly and violently into many small pieces or to cause a significant and often irreversible disruption to something.

1. The glass vase shattered into a million tiny pieces when it fell off the shelf.
2. Her dreams of becoming a professional athlete were shattered by a serious injury.
3. The loud crash made everyone jump as the window shattered during the storm.
4. He felt his heart shatter as he watched her walk away without looking back.
5. The team's hopes of winning the championship were shattered by a last-minute goal from their rivals.
6. The glass vase fell from the shelf and shattered into a million pieces.
7. Her dreams began to shatter when she realized the harsh reality of the situation.
8. The loud noise caused the calm atmosphere to shatter, leaving everyone on edge.
9. He worried that the unexpected news would shatter her confidence completely.
10. The artist used a hammer to shatter the ice, revealing the delicate sculpture within.
11. The vase fell from the shelf and shattered into countless pieces.
12. Her dreams seemed to shatter when she received the rejection letter.
13. The loud crash of thunder made the windows rattle and nearly shatter.
14. He tried to contain his anger, but the news was enough to shatter his composure.
15. The impact of the collision caused the glass to shatter across the pavement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/shatter>