

SHAWM

Meaning: A shawm is a double-reed woodwind instrument popular in medieval and Renaissance music, known for its loud, piercing sound and rich, reedy tone.

1. The shawm's distinctive sound filled the air during the medieval festival.
2. Musicians often choose the shawm for its rich, reedy tone in early music ensembles.
3. At the renaissance fair, a skilled player showcased his talent on the shawm.
4. The shawm is considered a precursor to the modern oboe, with its unique design.
5. In historical performances, the shawm adds an authentic layer to the overall atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/shawm>