

SHEATHING

Meaning: Sheathing is a protective layer or covering applied to walls or roofs, typically made of materials like plywood or oriented strand board, used for insulation and structural support.

1. The carpenter selected a durable sheathing material to ensure the walls were well-insulated.
2. During the renovation, they discovered that the old sheathing was damaged and needed replacement.
3. Proper sheathing is essential for protecting the structural integrity of the building from moisture.
4. The architect specified a new type of foam sheathing that promised better energy efficiency.
5. After applying the sheathing, the team proceeded to install the exterior siding for added protection.
6. The contractor decided to use plywood sheathing for the new house to improve its structural integrity.
7. During the renovation, they discovered that the old insulation was covered with a layer of sheathing that needed to be replaced.
8. The sheathing on the exterior walls was essential to protect the building from moisture and pests.
9. In construction, sheathing serves as a base for siding and helps to provide thermal insulation.
10. The team carefully installed the sheathing to ensure there were no gaps that could compromise the building's energy efficiency.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sheathing>