

SHEETFUL

Meaning: SHEETFUL (noun): a quantity or amount of something that can fill or cover a sheet, often referring to a large collection or array of items.

1. The artist spread a sheetful of vibrant colors across the canvas.
2. He printed a sheetful of documents to prepare for the meeting.
3. After the snowfall, the garden was covered with a sheetful of white snow.
4. She handed him a sheetful of notes filled with ideas for the project.
5. The teacher distributed a sheetful of worksheets to the students for practice.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sheetful>