SHELLING

Meaning: SHELLING refers to the act of bombarding an area with artillery fire or the collection and display of seashells.

1. The sound of shelling echoed through the valley, creating a sense of dread among the residents.

2. The artist meticulously captured the beauty of the ocean's waves and the delicate shells scattered along the shore.

3. During the conflict, shelling was a daily reality that disrupted life in the once peaceful town.

4. She spent the afternoon carefully shelling peas, eager to prepare a fresh garden dinner.

5. The military operation involved extensive shelling to weaken enemy positions before the ground assault.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/shelling