

SHERARDIZE

Meaning: To sherardize is to coat steel components with zinc through a process involving heating them in a zinc powder environment to enhance corrosion resistance.

1. The chemist decided to sherardize the steel components to enhance their corrosion resistance.
2. To improve the durability of the metal parts, they implemented a process to sherardize them before assembly.
3. Many manufacturers opt to sherardize their products, ensuring a longer lifespan in harsh environments.
4. Understanding how to properly sherardize materials can significantly impact the overall quality of the final product.
5. The team was trained to sherardize various metal alloys, which greatly improved their performance in the field.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sherardize>