

SHET

Meaning: "Shet" is an exclamation of frustration or surprise, often used as a euphemism for a stronger curse word.

1. He quickly realized he had made a mistake and let out a frustrated "shet."
2. When she tripped over the curb, all she could think was, "Oh shet!"
3. The unexpected news made him exclaim, "Shet, I didn't see that coming!"
4. As the deadline approached, he muttered to himself, "Shet, I need to finish this by tomorrow."
5. After losing the game, he sighed and said, "Shet, we really could have won that."

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/shet>