

SHILL

Meaning: A shill is a person who promotes or endorses a product, service, or cause for personal gain while pretending to be an unbiased supporter.

1. The politician was accused of using a shill to promote his campaign by falsely inflating support.
2. In the world of online marketing, some influencers are criticized for being shills for brands without disclosing their relationships.
3. During the auction, a shill bidder was caught trying to drive up the price of the artwork.
4. He felt duped when he realized that his trusted friend was actually a shill for the scam company.
5. The game was rigged, with a shill on the inside helping the house win at every turn.
6. The politician was accused of using a shill to promote his controversial policies at the rally.
7. At the poker table, he suspected that one of the players was a shill working for the house.
8. The online review seemed suspiciously positive, leading many to believe it was written by a shill.
9. She felt betrayed when she discovered that her friend was a shill for the competing company.
10. The advertisement was so exaggerated that it seemed like a shill for the product rather than an honest review.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/shill>