

SHITTLE

Meaning: Shittle (verb): To make a soft rustling or fluttering sound, often used to describe the movement of leaves or to express a light, joyful movement.

1. The shittle of the leaves in the breeze created a soothing sound.
2. He was so excited that he couldn't help but shittle with joy during the celebration.
3. Her shittle shoes made a delightful noise as she walked across the wooden floor.
4. The shittle of the water in the stream was a calming backdrop to their conversation.
5. As the children played, the shittle of their laughter filled the air with happiness.
6. The shittle of leaves rustled softly in the gentle breeze.
7. As the storm approached, the shittle of the raindrops against the window grew louder.
8. She admired the shittle of the river as it flowed smoothly past the edge of the forest.
9. In the quiet of the night, the shittle of distant owls created an eerie atmosphere.
10. The vibrant shittle of colors in the sunset took her breath away.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/shittle>