

SHIVERY

Meaning: Shivery: characterized by a feeling of coldness or fear that causes trembling or a chill.

1. The shivery breeze swept through the trees, sending a chill down her spine.
2. After the scary movie, he felt a shivery sensation lingering in the darkness of the room.
3. Wrapped in a blanket, she still felt shivery from the cold that seeped through the walls.
4. The shivery thrill of anticipation filled the air as the crowd awaited the concert to begin.
5. As the storm approached, the shivery tension in the air made everyone feel uneasy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/shivery>