

SHOAD

Meaning: SHOAD (noun): A large group or school of fish swimming together.

1. The shoal of fish moved gracefully through the coral reef.
2. As the tide receded, the shoal revealed a hidden world of vibrant marine life.
3. Birds circled above, eager to catch a glimpse of the shimmering shoal below.
4. During our boat ride, we were fortunate to spot a large shoal dancing in the sunlight.
5. The shoal provided a perfect opportunity for the divers to observe the underwater ecosystem.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/shoad>